

33. HOSPITALS

A. For the proposed development indicate:

1. Design capacity by development phase;

The Parkland development program (including the 200-bed hospital facility) is an 8-year single-phase project to commence upon the effective date of the development order(s) issued for the project.

2. Service area;

To be provided once a hospital provider is selected.

3. Types of medical service to be provided: i.e. outpatient, emergency, etc.;

In addition to the 200-bed inpatient facility for traditional in-patient medical care and treatment, the medical facility may provide out-patient components including laboratories, diagnostic and treatment facilities, medical offices and therapeutic centers.

4. Projected number of licensed beds by development phase; and

The Parkland development program (including the 200-bed hospital facility) is an 8-year single-phase project to commence upon the effective date of the development order(s) issued for the project

5. Schedule of cost per unit of service.

To be provided once a hospital provider is selected.

B. If the proposed facility is to be a part of a medical complex, specify the related facilities to be provided. Describe the functional relationship between these facilities and the hospital.

To be provided once a hospital provider is selected.

C. If an application for a certificate of need under Chapter 381.494, F.S., has been prepared, provide a copy of the completed application along with the comments by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, if any.

To be provided once a hospital provider is selected.

EXHIBIT 33-1

Application for Certificate of Need