

BBRRCT Interim Procedures with Respect to Advocacy and Draft Work Products

- All draft work products of the team shall be marked draft until final approval by the Task Force.
- It is acceptable for team members to share or distribute the work products to their organizations or others for comments or input prior to final approval by the Task Force.
- BBRRCT members will wait until final approval by the Task Force before referencing or distributing the plan in an advocacy role or manner.
- Individual team members may only lobby or advocate in accordance with their own organization's regulations, on behalf of either themselves or their organizations. They may not lobby or advocate on behalf of the BBRRCT without explicit authority from the BBRRCT and the Task Force.
