

BROWARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PLANNING AND ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

URBAN TREE CANOPY VISIONING WORKSHOP

AUGUST 29, 2001

AGENDA

Objectives of the Day:

- Review current condition of Broward's tree canopy
- Learn about the positive effects of a sustainable tree canopy
- Discuss the qualities of a sustainable Urban Forest
- Brainstorm the elements of a perfect Urban Forest
- Hear about a community success
- Action planning and prioritizing

- 8:00 Registration/Continental Breakfast
- 8:30 Welcome, Opening Remarks, Agenda Review
*Sean McSweeney, Coordinator, Urban Forestry Program, Broward County
Department of Planning and Environmental Protection
The Honorable Lori Parrish, Broward County Commissioner*
- 9:00 "Tree Canopy in Broward County", a Presentation
*Sean McSweeney, Coordinator, Urban Forestry Program, Broward County
DPEP
Victoria Morrow, Senior Planner, Broward County DPEP*
- 10:00 Break
- 10:15 Panel Discussion: The Qualities of a Sustainable Urban Forest
*Terry Mock, Director, Champion Tree Project International
Dr. Mike Orphanedes, Broward County Extension Education Division
John Harris, President, Earth Advisors, Inc.*
- 11:00 Brainstorming session:
"What would Broward look like in your vision if it had a perfect urban forest?"
- 11:20 City of Plantation, A Success Story
Jeff Siegel, Landscape Architect, City of Plantation
- 12:00 Lunch
- 1:00 Action Planning I and Prioritizing/Small group work
- 1:45 Action Planning II/Small group work
- 3:30 Report back of groups
- 4:50 Closing Remarks/Evaluations
- 5:00 Adjourn